TRICK OR TREAT

A cartoon illustration of a mummy character wrapped in white bandages with brown straps. The mummy has large, white, circular eyes and a small, curved mouth. It is holding a large, orange jack-o'-lantern basket filled with candy. The basket has a carved face with triangular eyes and a jagged mouth. In the foreground, there are several pumpkins: a large orange one with a carved face, a smaller yellow one with a carved face, and a small red one. There are also some blue and white wrapped candies scattered around. The background is a solid dark blue.
